The nations described in the map and list represent the current status and information as of December 2020 to EBF. European hunting legislation is very dynamic and changing frequently. Hunting with bow and arrow is normally representing a small portion under the umbrella of the general hunting laws and as such it is not always clear what possibilities and restrictions exist for this hunting method. It is the responsibility of travelling bowhunters to investigate all applicable hunting rules and regulations.

Please check with the national hunting authorities, national (bow)hunting organisations, and reliable licensed hunting outfits before you enter any hunting adventure.
